With over three decades of experience, Shawn is an esteemed adjudicator of all dance styles, and brings a rich, diverse background to the stage. Trained in ballet, tap dance, jazz, modern, hip hop, and musical theatre, Shawn's dance journey began with BATD training in Mississauga, Ontario. Mentored by Scotland's Heather Murray, and the legendary Gregory Hines, he further honed skills at Broadway Dance Center in NYC and The Edge in LA.

Shawn holds a background in instrumental music (trombone) and vocals, allowing him to seamlessly integrate music theory into his dance teachings. With a coaching career spanning over three decades, he founded Toronto's successful adult dance studio, Byfield Dance Experience.

He's contributed over a decade of teaching at Randolph College for the Performing Arts, and he's inspired dancers in Scotland, England, Israel, and across Canada. Many of his students have become inspiring teachers themselves! As a certified public speaker, and John Maxwell Leadership certified coach and trainer, Shawn's infectious positivity resonates on every stage, and through his Instagram platform (@ShawnByfield), inspiring followers to reach for the stars.

PIANO ADJUDICATOR

JAMIE
Syer

Though he finds it hard to believe, JAMIE SYER is marking more than 50 years as a professional pianist, having debuted at Calgary's Pleiades Theatre in 1971. Dr. Syer completed his graduate degrees at the Yale University School of Music as a student of Claude Frank and Ward Davenny. He has taught at universities and colleges in Alberta, Saskatchewan, British Columbia and New Brunswick. Jamie maintains a website jamiesyer.ca where he shares what he knows—and what he's still learning—about teaching and playing piano.

Jamie Syer was Dean of the Victoria Conservatory of Music until 2012. He also served as Head of the Conservatory's Keyboard Department, and taught at the School of Music, University of Victoria. As a lecturer for UVic's Faculty of Continuing Education, he led two arts related travel tours to France. Jamie is the founder of the Victoria Conservatory's Young Artists Collegium program, which offers an enriched curriculum for talented young singers, pianists and instrumentalists. He has performed many times in Europe: in Scotland, Ireland, Hungary, France, and England; as well as closer to home in recital venues across Canada.

Dr. Syer is known for his imaginative recital programming, and his artistic, energetic playing in both the solo and chamber music repertoire. He is a popular adjudicator and workshop clinician, who enjoys working with teachers' groups and with students of all ages. He teaches every year at the University of Victoria's summer piano immersion program.

Jamie is a keen aficionado of musical theatre. He has been Music Director for productions of Anne of Green Gables, Matilda, and many others; and he has composed an original musical, Camp Spartan, which premiered in February 2023. Beyond music, Jamie was Manager of his local public library for six years, and he enjoys the art and craft of letterpress printing.
